Reason for sale	Two owners are involved in the business and as the business has expanded they have acquired another restaurant in Plettenberg Bay. The owner in the Eastern Cape has now expressed the desire to move to Canada and will be leaving the business shortly. Running two restaurants so far apart is too onerous for one person, especially when family lifestyle is part of their business model and therefore the decision to sell the eastern cape restaurant and culinary school individually or collectively was made.
Growth opportunities	Tourism is growing in SA at a rate of around 12%. More effective marketing towards tour operators will grow their business.
